July 3rd, 2011 Meeting Review by Nancy Vrooman

At 12:45 PM Alan Raul conducted his Q & A session.
At 2 PM We started our Annual BBQ

I thought nobody used mustard on their hamburger except Alan. Well .... next year there will be the giant economy size. Sorry guys. Those gorgeous tomatoes from Avila Barn, courtesy of Josette, made my burger superlative. Janet makes room in her fridge to keep the salads chilled, thank goodness. Shall we take the potato chips back to Costco and demand a package that hadn't been sat upon in the warehouse?

This year I got to see more of the bbq-ers amazing secrets. The patties arrive still frozen and the white towels on the benches weren't there for the cooks to keep their trousers clean. Each burger had its own spot to become the perfect temperature to absorb the aromatic smoke from the load of oak Ralph brings. Jim even unreels his own hose in case of flare-ups. And Ken didn't flinch when wind direction changed the trajectory of the smoke. The $8.95 burger I had in Cambria this week didn't come close to these.

Did you know those were Hue's home grown onions from a special nursery in Texas? Bravo! And dessert. Were you impressed? Signe bakes and frosts 3 different cakes for us to enjoy. I wish I had a piece right now. Special thanks to Don for completing Robert's chili. One scoop left in the pot.

I didn't get to see who was doing clean-up but it was done well! Thank you. And we would have been sitting on the floor unless volunteers hauled out tables and chairs! Big job and a big thank you to all of you! Speaking of volunteers. We need two more people. Someone with a 2nd fridge that will accommodate soft drinks (thank you for the ice Debby) and somebody willing to visit Costco 4 days early before they run out of the good buns. See any board member if you're game. Thank you for bringing your appetites and smiles.
